My Work with Brands

It has been my honor to work with and develop recipes for these trusted brands.

How can I help you spread your brand's message?

Pastry Chef Online is a niche baking website dedicated to helping people become fearless in the kitchen. I share many recipes, both sweet and savory, and my primary focus is on methods, techniques, and professional tips to explain in plain English the how and why behind the what of baking and cooking. How can I help you share your message?
